

JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 13 December 1960

25X1C

25X1A

2. [REDACTED] A request has been to [REDACTED] (Mr. Ashcraft) to debrief both the Rogers-MacDonald group, which traveled to Europe and Russia, and the Barratt O'Hara group, which traveled to Africa.

STAT

3. [REDACTED] Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to pass on information which he said he had received from a source which he considered quite reliable. The information is to the effect that Cuba has shipped all of its gold to the Cuban Consul in Geneva. The Consul in Geneva is the son of a well-known communist, Alberto Blao.

4. [REDACTED] Mr. Wascow, in the office of Congressman Kastenmeier, called and asked if we had a copy of Ernesto "Che" Guevara's book entitled "Guerrilla Warfare". In checking with the Library, I learned that this book, originally printed in Spanish, has been translated into English by the Army. [REDACTED] is attempting to obtain a copy.

STAT

CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
2430 E STREET, N. W.
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

19 December 1960

TO: Mr. J. G. Sourwine
Senate Internal Security Subcommittee
New Senate Office Building - Room 3234
John S. Warner
FROM: Legislative Counsel, CIA
Telephone Executive 3-6115, X-734

Attached is a recent speech by the Agency Inspector General before the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., entitled "Free World Police:
Target for Communist Subversion. I am sure you will find this of interest and it might possibly be of some assistance in your work.

(40)

FORM 1533
10-58